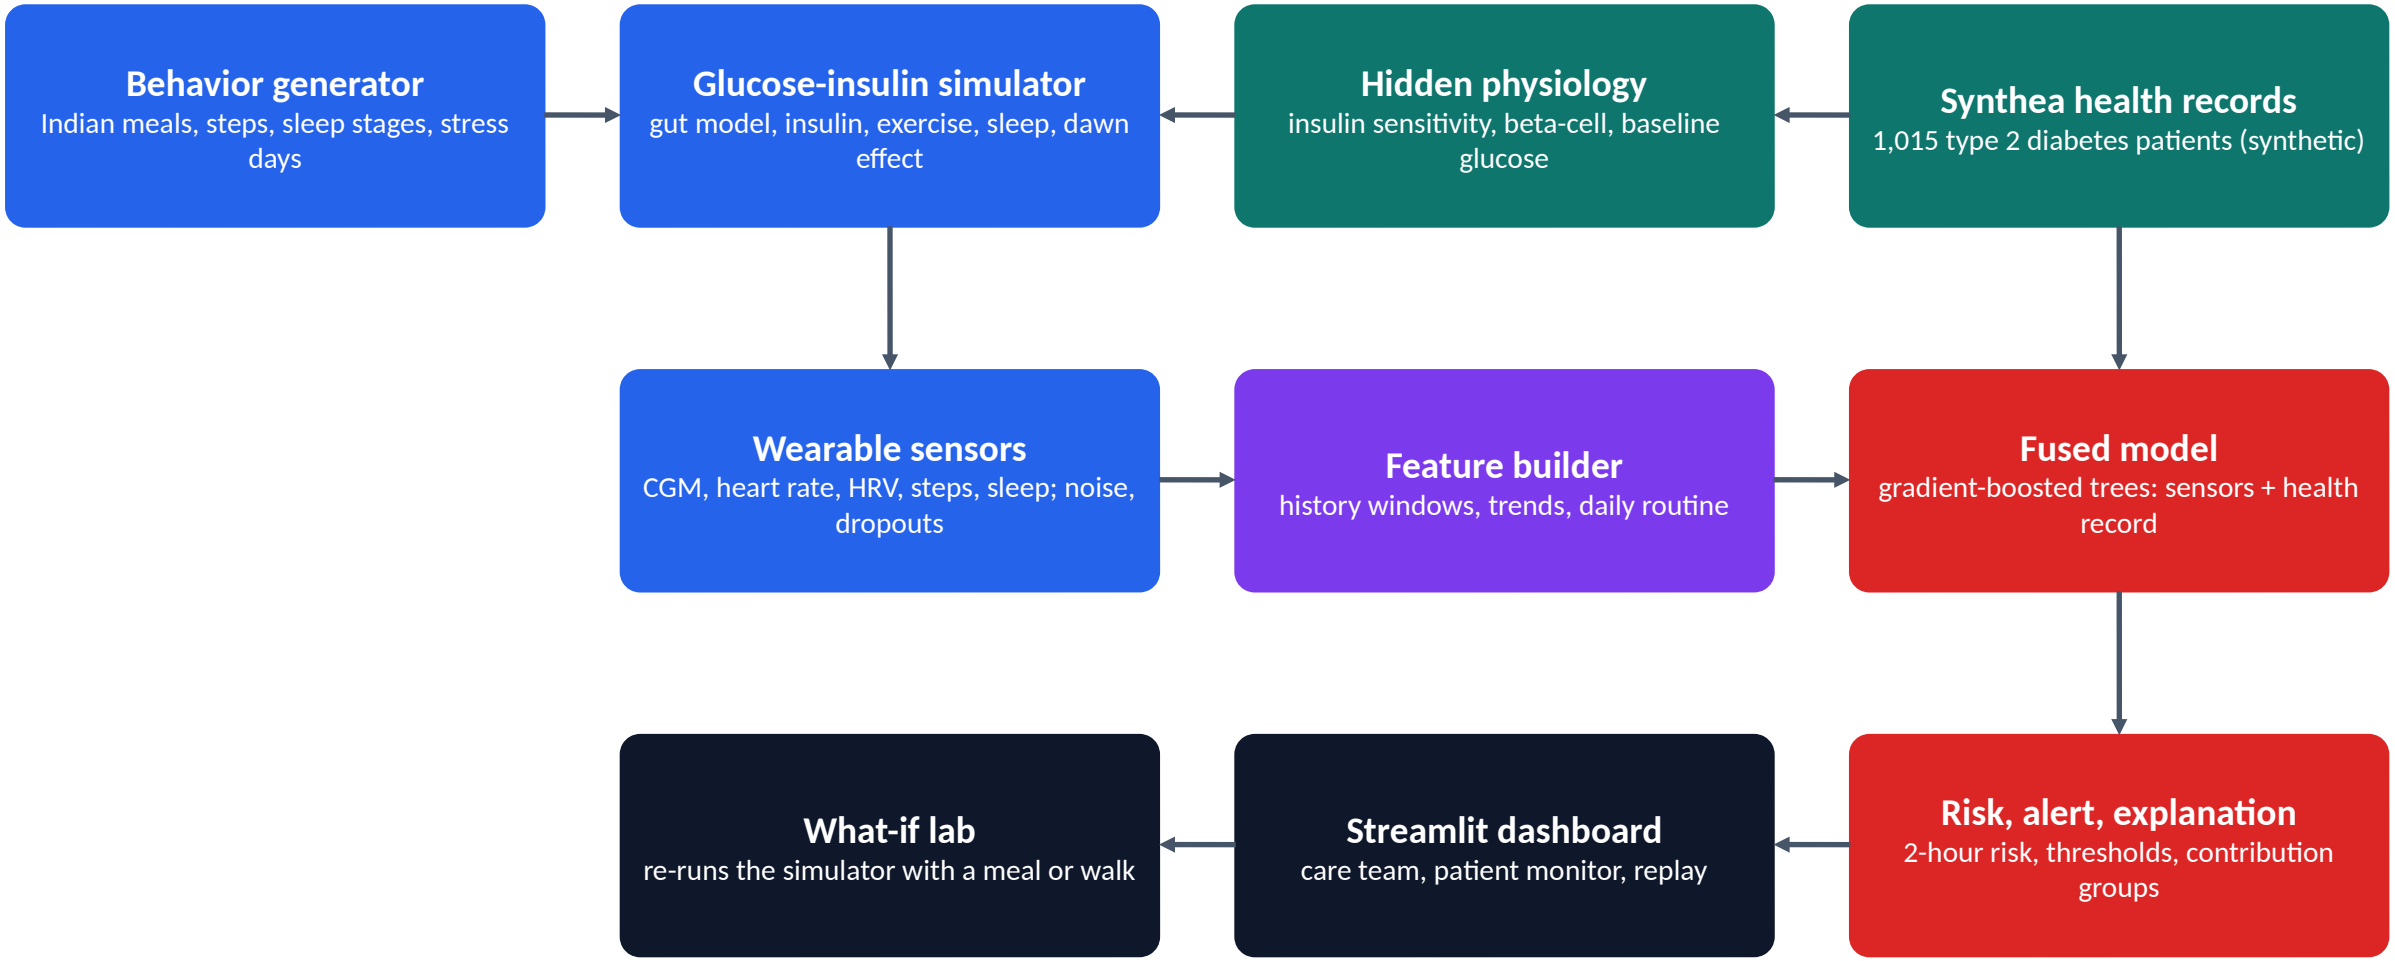
System architecture: Digital Twin for Type 2 Diabetes



Training and evaluation: 706 / 155 / 150 patients (train / validation / test), split by patient. Adverse events are read off the simulated glucose, never injected. Model inputs are sensor channels and the health record only; hidden physiology is never a feature.